UNIVERSITY OF ALBERTA
AUGUSTANA CAMPUS

Welcome to Camrose

The University of Alberta, Augustana Campus Vikings are proud to welcome visiting teams to Camrose, “The Rose City”.

Located in the heart of rural Alberta, Camrose is considered by many as one of the most beautiful cities on the prairies. Camrose is a clean and healthy community that boasts an exceptional quality of life for both citizens and visitors. The city offers a wide variety of amenities for all ages through modern services, first class recreation facilities, and all-embracing cultural opportunities. With a population of 16,000 and a trading area population exceeding 100,000, the progressive growth, development, and diverse economy of Camrose have contributed to its recognition as “The Regional Centre” for east central Alberta.

The Augustana Campus in Camrose is located just 60 minutes southeast of Edmonton. Offering a liberal arts-focused education on an intimate campus, Augustana continues to build its reputation for high quality teaching on a friendly, caring, residence-based campus. Augustana began its operations in 1911, when it was known as Camrose Lutheran College. In 2004, the Augustana Campus became a faculty of the University of Alberta, granting four-year baccalaureate degrees in the arts and the sciences. Despite the many changes, Augustana remains inspired by the convictions of its pioneer legacy. Augustana continues to be a place where students matter, where teaching is regarded as a vocation, and where community is an everyday experience.
